Dear Richard Petrowsky:

Re: Lottery Licence # SR21-2818

Please find enclosed your licence to manage and conduct a Small Raffle lottery scheme as described by the conditions outlined on the licence, and pursuant to the enclosed Terms and Conditions. Any changes to this licence must be submitted in writing to the Saskatchewan Liquor and Gaming Authority (SLGA) and, if approved, SLGA will issue an addendum to the licence.

Financial reporting is required at the conclusion of your licence. Please visit our website at www.slga.com and register for an on-line account to access financial report forms.

The net proceeds from this gaming are used for charitable or religious purposes such as the advancement of religion, the advancement of education, the relief of poverty or those purposes considered of broad benefit to the community.

All charitable groups and organizations licensed under section 207(1)(b) of the Criminal Code to conduct charitable gaming (bingo, breakopen, raffles, Texas hold'em poker tournaments and Monte Carlo charity events) are eligible to receive a charitable gaming grant up to a maximum of $100,000 per organization per year. If charitable, your organization will receive a grant equal to 25% of net proceeds raised on your lottery licences, within the annual limit noted above.

Please note that Charitable Gaming Grants are calculated based on the financial reports submitted for your charitable gaming licences. If your financial reports are not submitted within six (6) months of the expiry of this licence, your organization will not be eligible for a grant on this licence.

Please retain this letter as part of your lottery records. If you have questions or require any assistance, please refer to the Charitable Gaming Policy Manual which is available online at www.slga.com or contact our office quoting your licence number.

Yours truly,
Rhonda Sarich, Licensing Specialist
