Specific Conditions:

This lottery is approved for online sales with the selected service provider. Licensee must take all proceeds and pay service provider after they receive all funds.

Tickets can be sold online only.

The licensee is responsible for ensuring any organizations included in this lottery or any drop-down menu for this lottery are groups with a similar purpose and mandate as the licensee. Funds raised must be used for Charitable, Religious or Community purposes and not for personal gain.

The use of a Random Number Generator (RNG) is permitted to determine the winner of this lottery.

Draws must take place at a public location by the licensee, with at least 3 members of the organization.

Tickets can only be sold in the Province of Nova Scotia.

The contract provided to AGFT between this group and the service provider is the only valid contract to conduct this lottery.

One bank account must be used for all lottery finances.

Payments to winners cannot be made through electronic payments.

This Ticket Lottery License is subject to the 2.13% of the total prize value.

This lottery covers the approved organization listed on the conditions only.

Funds raised from this lottery cannot be used for any form of personal gain.

The organization listed on this license is responsible for the management and conduct of this license.

Only one name is to be printed entered on a lottery ticket. Only one person is to win the prize.

If the prize is not claimed within 90 days, this office must be notified that a second draw will take place. If the second draw is not claimed after 90 days, you must advise Alcohol, Gaming, Fuel, and Tobacco for further steps.

Lotteries with jackpots exceeding $100,000 will require oversight by an Accountant (CPA) to ensure the integrity of the lottery.

The CPA must be a separate entity from the membership body, association, or lottery scheme and must be capable of auditing the lottery scheme at AGFT's request.

Changes cannot be made to this license once it has been issued.

The attached License is issued pursuant to the Nova Scotia Gaming Control Act, the Criminal Code Section 206, 207 and Regulations thereunder, the terms and conditions of the Gaming License Application.

Failure to comply with the terms and conditions of the license could result in the license being suspended or revoked and may constitute an offense against the Gaming Control Act or Regulations thereunder.

Any changes to this license must be submitted in writing to this office.

This license is non-transferable.
